FOLIO AUGUST 1992

From the Program Director

Andrew Phillips

I want to point out some program changes you'll hear during August. On Saturdays, we are experimenting with a new world music format: Continental Drift (9:00-11:00PM) features a collective of producers looking for hidden gems in our many worlds of music. The show, with Neva Wartell, Montego Joe, and Ibrahim Gonzalez, alternates with live broadcasts from the Nuyorican Poets' Cafe and Citizen Kafka's unique archival music program, The Secret Museum of the Air.

Earlier on Saturdays, we are running another pilot program which we hope will represent Afro-Caribbean/Pan-African views, news, and rhythms. News Rhythms (3:30 to 5:00PM) is produced by J. Raynald Louis of our Haitian Perspectives program (alternating Mondays at 2:00PM). This is an attempt to cover international events which affect us locally, such as the ongoing crises in Haiti.

And during the summer, some of our producers will be out of town. Listen for Sidney Smith on Sunday mornings at 11:30 (sitting in for Mike Feder), following Chris Whent's popular music program profiling the Renaissance and its music. Also, be sure to catch Robyn Field, (substituting for David Rothenberg) and his Broadway music features on Saturday mornings (8:30-10:30), and Laura Sydell, who will be filling in for Paul Gorman (10:30-noon).

Check the grid inside for regular programming. Beginning in September, we will return to our monthly Folio production schedule.

Please stay tuned!
